

The next morning, the king hurried to the lions' den. He called out to Daniel, "Daniel! Has your God been able to save you from the lions?" And Daniel answered! Daniel said: "My God sent his angel. And his angel shut the mouths of the lions. They haven't hurt me at all!" (Daniel 6:22 NIV) And when Daniel came out of the lions' den, everyone could see that there wasn't a single scratch on him!

My book about Daniel

God was with Daniel wherever he went.

Daniel had a job working for the king. The king really liked Daniel and because Daniel was so good at his job, the king planned to put Daniel in charge of the whole kingdom - and that made some people really mad.

But Daniel did not pray to the king, he knew that he should only pray to the one true God.

The king was sad; he didn't want Daniel to get hurt but he couldn't change the law and had to put Daniel in the lion's den. The king said, 'I hope your God saves you.' Daniel continued to pray to God and God kept him safe. God sent an angel to shut the lions' mouths.
